

Construct regular prism with square base, which is determined by its axis  $m$  and one of the vertices  $A$  is not lying on  $m$ . The true length of the height of the prism is 45 mm. Use the method of rotation and perpendicularity of line and plane. Show the visibility.

